

Homework Schedule with Exam Dates

Dr. Holmes

July 31, 2001

Updates will of course continue to appear. . .

TEST DATES CHANGED IN THIS VERSION. Each exam other than the final has been delayed one period. This does not change the coverage: an exam given on a Tuesday will cover material lectured on the previous Tuesday. The advantage is that there is an additional period between the lecture and the exam, giving the opportunity to ask questions about the material.

I'm changing the homework turn-around cycle: homework assigned on any day will be due one week later (whether this is Tuesday or Thursday). Of course this will not apply to the very last assignment.

Some assignments (word problems, for example) may have the due date extended.

It is a good idea to review chapter 1 (which covers topics you should be familiar with from high school or from Math 025), and see if you have any problems in these areas.

Assignments now contain odd problems and are generally longer: it is only necessary to turn in even problems. (I have always regarded it as likely that you would need to do some odd problems to get immediate feedback).

Tuesday, June 12: 2.1–2.3.

2.1: 2, 6, 12, 14, 16, 26, 28, 32, 36, 40, 44, 62, 64, 66, 68.

2.2: 1–6, 8, 18, 22, 24, 26, 34, 38, 66, 84.

2.3: 4, 8, 14, 18, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 44, 56, 64, 66, 72, 84.

Thursday, June 14: 2.4–2.6

2.4: 10, 14, 18, 22, 28, 30, 32, 40, 46, 48, 54, 56, 64, 66, 70.

2.5: 2, 10, 14, 16, 18, 24, 26, 31-36, 38, 42, 48, 54, 56, 62.

2.6: 2, 4, 6, 8, 14, 18, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 40, 54.

Tuesday, June 19: 3.1, 3.3, 3.4:

3.1: 4, 6, 12, 16, 20, 30, 36, 40, 44, 50, 54, 56, 66, 68, 70, 72.

3.3: do some of 1-13 odd, some of 15-21 odd and check on yourself in the back of the book.

Turn in 28, 30, 36, 38, 42, 46, 48, 50, 54, 58, 60, 62, 66, 68, 78.

3.4: 2, 6, 10, 16, 20, 22, 32, 34, 38, 40, 44, 46, 48, 52, 56.

(you have one extra session to complete the 3.4 problems: they are due on the 28th, while the 3.1 and 3.3 problems are due on the 26th. This is not so that you can put off working on these a couple of additional days – this is because these problems take more time – note that 3.4 is on the exam!)

Thursday, June 21: 3.5, 3.6, 4.1:

3.5: 4, 6, 12, 14, 16, 30, 38, 44, 46, 48, 56, 58, 64, 72, 76, 80.

3.6: 6, 18, 24, 32, 34, 46, 48, 58, 62, 78, 80, 84, 90, 92, 98. I like the odd problem 99.

4.1: 8, 10, 16, 26, 38, 44, 50, 52, 64, 66, 68, 72, 74, 80, 100, 102

Note that 3.5–4.1 will be due on the 28th (since Tues. and Thurs. assignments are now both due one week after they are handed in). Remember that 3.4 is also due on the 28th.
